

Bishop Lindsey Davis

RESIDENT BISHOP, THE LOUISVILLE AREA

Bishop Lindsey Davis was assigned to The Louisville Area effective September 1, 2008. He was elected to the episcopacy in July 1996 from the Kentucky Conference and was assigned to the North Georgia Area, where he served for 12 years.

Born in Durham, North Carolina, Bishop Davis spent most of his life in Kentucky and holds degrees from Union College, University of Kentucky, Lexington Theological Seminary, and Kentucky Wesleyan College. He was ordained Deacon in 1978 and elder in 1981. As a member of the Kentucky Conference, Bishop Davis served as Associate Pastor at First United Methodist Church of Lexington, Senior Pastor at Mayo Memorial United Methodist Church and St. Luke (Lexington) United Methodist Church, and Superintendent of the Lexington District. He was Assistant Director, Office of Educational Development at the University of Kentucky College of Medicine; Director of Educational Development, University of Alabama, College of Community Health Sciences; and Consultant for the Department of Family Medicine and Pediatrics at the University of Kentucky College of Medicine before entering the ministry. Bishop Davis co-chaired the Uniting Transition Team for the Louisville Area in 1996. He was a delegate to General Conference and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 1992 and 1996.

Bishop Davis has served on the General Council on Ministries (1996-2000). He served as Director of the General Board of Global Ministries and President of the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) (2000-2004). He is currently President of the General Council on Finance and Administration. He also serves as the Vice President of Emory University Board of Trustees, a member of the Robert W. Woodruff Health Sciences Center Board of Emory University, and as Chair of PATH1, our denominational new-church-planting emphasis.

Bishop Davis is married to the former Jennifer Mink of Pineville, Kentucky. Their children are Laura Ellen Miller, an elementary school teacher, and her husband, Dustin, a partner in Government Strategies, Inc., who live in Lexington, Kentucky; and John Lindsey Davis, a mortgage loan officer, and his wife, Jennifer, a real estate attorney, who live in Marietta, Georgia. The Davises have two grandsons, Jackson Lindsey Davis and Davis Scott Miller, and one granddaughter, Taylor Ann Davis.

Bishop Lindsey Davis

RESIDENT BISHOP, THE LOUISVILLE AREA

Bishop Lindsey Davis was assigned to The Louisville Area effective September 1, 2008. He was elected to the episcopacy in July 1996 from the Kentucky Conference and was assigned to the North Georgia Area, where he served for 12 years.

Born in Durham, North Carolina, Bishop Davis spent most of his life in Kentucky and holds degrees from Union College, University of Kentucky, Lexington Theological Seminary, and Kentucky Wesleyan College. He was ordained Deacon in 1978 and elder in 1981. As a member of the Kentucky Conference, Bishop Davis served as Associate Pastor at First United Methodist Church of Lexington, Senior Pastor at Mayo Memorial United Methodist Church and St. Luke (Lexington) United Methodist Church, and Superintendent of the Lexington District. He was Assistant Director, Office of Educational Development at the University of Kentucky College of Medicine; Director of Educational Development, University of Alabama, College of Community Health Sciences; and Consultant for the Department of Family Medicine and Pediatrics at the University of Kentucky College of Medicine before entering the ministry. Bishop Davis co-chaired the Uniting Transition Team for the Louisville Area in 1996. He was a delegate to General Conference and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 1992 and 1996.

Bishop Davis has served on the General Council on Ministries (1996-2000). He served as Director of the General Board of Global Ministries and President of the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) (2000-2004). He is currently President of the General Council on Finance and Administration. He also serves as the Vice President of Emory University Board of Trustees, a member of the Robert W. Woodruff Health Sciences Center Board of Emory University, and as Chair of PATH1, our denominational new-church-planting emphasis.

Bishop Davis is married to the former Jennifer Mink of Pineville, Kentucky. Their children are Laura Ellen Miller, an elementary school teacher, and her husband, Dustin, a partner in Government Strategies, Inc., who live in Lexington, Kentucky; and John Lindsey Davis, a mortgage loan officer, and his wife, Jennifer, a real estate attorney, who live in Marietta, Georgia. The Davises have two grandsons, Jackson Lindsey Davis and Davis Scott Miller, and one granddaughter, Taylor Ann Davis.

Celebration of Episcopal Assignment

Saturday - October 18, 2008

Frankfort Convention Center

Join us as we celebrate Bishop Lindsey Davis' assignment to the Kentucky Annual Conference and Red Bird Missionary Conference.

Gathering Music - 2:30pm (ET)

Celebration/Ceremony - 3:00pm (ET)

Bishop Lindsey Davis, preaching

How can I participate?

- Pray for the event and for our new Bishop & his family.
- Come and bring your friends and family.
- Bring your church banner.
- Sing in the conference-wide choir.

Conference-wide Choir Whether you come by yourself or with your whole church choir, you can help provide musical leadership for the celebration. The conference wide choir will sing two selections (for information about the music go to www.kyumc.org/episcopalassignment). Be at the Convention Center at 1 p.m. E.T. to rehearse. Please dress in a white top and black pants or skirt. Let us make a joyful noise unto the Lord!

Banners: Churches are invited to bring your church banner and a stand for the celebration. Ushers will direct placement for district and church banners. Please remember to bring your own banner stand and bring the banners by 2:15. Please remember to collect your banner following the service.

Child care will be provided at First UMC, Frankfort (located at 211 Washington Street). Reservations for child care are appreciated; please contact Rev. Tonya Kenner at tonyafumc@fewpb.net or 502-227-7430.

Celebration of Episcopal Assignment

Saturday - October 18, 2008

Frankfort Convention Center

Join us as we celebrate Bishop Lindsey Davis' assignment to the Kentucky Annual Conference and Red Bird Missionary Conference.

Gathering Music - 2:30pm (ET)

Celebration/Ceremony - 3:00pm (ET)

Bishop Lindsey Davis, preaching

How can I participate?

- Pray for the event and for our new Bishop & his family.
- Come and bring your friends and family.
- Bring your church banner.
- Sing in the conference-wide choir.

Conference-wide Choir Whether you come by yourself or with your whole church choir, you can help provide musical leadership for the celebration. The conference wide choir will sing two selections (for information about the music go to www.kyumc.org/episcopalassignment). Be at the Convention Center at 1 p.m. E.T. to rehearse. Please dress in a white top and black pants or skirt. Let us make a joyful noise unto the Lord!

Banners: Churches are invited to bring your church banner and a stand for the celebration. Ushers will direct placement for district and church banners. Please remember to bring your own banner stand and bring the banners by 2:15. Please remember to collect your banner following the service.

Child care will be provided at First UMC, Frankfort (located at 211 Washington Street). Reservations for child care are appreciated; please contact Rev. Tonya Kenner at tonyafumc@fewpb.net or 502-227-7430.